WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Robert C. "Bobby" Scott (D-VA) discussed furloughs and the effects of sequestration on the federal workforce. Click the image below to watch Congressman Scott speaking on how sequestration and federal employee furloughs could have been avoided had Congress made more responsible decisions regarding our nation's fiscal challenges.

Click here to watch the interview