WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Robert C. "Bobby" Scott (VA-03) questioned Attorney General Eric Holder during a House Judiciary Committee oversight hearing on the Department of Justice. The Congressman questioned the Attorney General about the recent IRS scandal, possible commutation of certain crack-cocaine sentences in light of passage of the Fair Sentencing Act, hiring discrimination in programs administered by the so-called faith-based initiative, and the impact of sequestration on the administration of justice.

The full video of the Congressman questioning the Attorney General is below.

Click here to watch the full video clip. ÂÂ

# #