

WASHINGTON, DC – Today, the House of Representatives passed S. Con. Res. 13, the conference agreement which establishes the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal year 2010, by a vote of 233 to 193 (Roll Call No. 216). Voting in favor of the resolution, Representative Bobby Scott (D-VA-03), a member of the House Budget Committee, issued the following statement:

“The conference agreement reached by the House and the Senate will put our nation back on a path of economic prosperity and fiscal responsibility,” said Rep. Scott. “This budget is a long-term economic plan that includes targeted investments that will create new jobs, help transform our economy with clean American energy, prepare our students for the jobs of the 21st century and reform our healthcare care system to make it affordable for more American families and small businesses.”
